Prayer for Our Veterans

Almighty God,

We lift up in prayer the men and women who have served our nation with honor and courage. Be near to those who have walked through the valley of war and returned bearing its burdens. Also let us remember those who served during times of peace, who kept us safe without conflict. Bless all our veterans, O Lord, with peace in their hearts and healing in their bodies.

Grant rest to those who have fallen, and eternal light to those who gave their lives in service.

May our nation be guided by Your wisdom and protected by Your hand. Amen.

TAKE FIVE

The Lord's living house...

How often, when we speak of church, we have to clarify whether we mean the faith community or the building where that community gathers. The fact that the memorial of the dedication of the Church of St. John Lateran today replaces even the Sunday liturgy reminds us that our faith reaches into the clay from which we are made. We celebrate this building-the pope's own cathedral, the mother of all churches-remembering that human beings need things that appeal to the senses to remind us of spiritual values. Saint Augustine says that when the community of faith gathers "they are hewn out, as it were, from mountains and forests, like stones and timber; but by catechizing, baptism, and instruction they are...shaped, squared, and planned by the hands of the workers and artisans" and finally are made into a house for the Lord, "fitted together through love."
