

Belief is a life-and-death issue for Jesus.

- How do I see faith as lifegiving, for myself and others?
- What do I really believe about death? Does that make a difference in how I live my life?
- Jesus shows a lot of emotion in this gospel: He weeps; he gets perturbed. How do his feelings affect me? What does he do with his intense feelings? What do I usually do with mine?
- Whose death caused me the most sorrow? What more can I do in my life to honor that person?
